Thank You All!

We truly are a house of Prayer.

Many thanks to all who were a part of our Prayer Gathering;

Your prayers of support, your attendance and participation all matter.

We don't just resist evil when we pray, we expand God's Kingdom.

Let's continue to encourage each other in Proactive Prayer for our Church family, our Community, our Country, and for our Missions around the World.

SALEM SOLVERS will be this Tuesday, 11/13 - 8am-Noon. We would love to have a bunch here for we have some things to do! NO floor scrubbing, NO toilet cleaning, NO dusting - otherwise we are moving and grooving. Won't you please join us? People ask, "What Can I do?" - Trust me - we will have something for you to do. And remember, regular Wednesday night activities will not be held on the 14th. Refreshments to say Thank You will be provided! Wear your fall colors.

Committee Members for the 2018-2019 are being notified of their Team members and also their Responsibilities based on the revised Church Constitution. Committees -- please gather together to meet as soon as possible to plan your year, and plan your budget to provide to the Stewardship Committee (quickly). Please send Mimi Woodward your designated Committee Chair, who will serve as the point of contact for the committee. Thank you.
